Mr. Jordan and Ms. deBeau:

Upon review of the supplement complaint in MUR 7056, Pegasus has determined that it need not respond further. Please refer to the initial response submitted by Pegasus on May 31, 2016, on which we stand as the response to MUR 7056. That response was sent via email and regular mail.

Please also advise that Pegasus is aware of information, wholly unrelated to the Herman Cain campaign flights, supportive of the allegations by Mr. Erdman as to Mr. Victor's solicitations of third parties to contribute to various political candidates with the promise he (Mr. Victor) would reimburse those contributions made in the name of various third parties. Specifically, and while not alleged in the Erdman complaints, Mr. Victor solicited individuals at Pegasus in this regard as well. Pegasus declined all those solicitations.

Also, and for what it is worth, Mr. Victor testified at a deposition last week (in a case pending against Pegasus and set for trial next month) respecting the allegations in Mr. Erdman's complaint. I asked the questions, including whether Mr. Victor disputed the allegations being made by Mr. Erdman. Mr. Victor refused to answer those questions, repeatedly asserting his Fifth Amendment rights.

We are available to discuss this matter further if you like.
